| This rent includes the basic rent for your rental unit and any amount you pay separately to your landlord for services. However, if you live in a care home, this rent does not include charges for care services or meals. |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |   |  |  |   |  |  |   |  |  |  |   |  |  |   |  |  |                              |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |   |  |

Important
Information About the Law

1. The guideline for rent increases set by the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing does not apply to tenants who live in rental units that are partially exempt from the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006. In these cases, the landlord can raise the rent by any amount.
2. The landlord must give the tenant this notice at least 90 days before the date of the rent increase (where applicable).
3. A tenant does not have to sign a new lease when a fixed term tenancy ends. If the tenant decides not to sign a new lease, the tenant does not have to move, but the tenancy becomes "month-to-month".
If a tenant plans to move, the tenant must notify the landlord on Form N9 (Tenant's Notice to End the Tenancy) at least 60 days before the lease expires if the tenant has a fixed term tenancy or 60 days before the end of a monthly or yearly rental period. The tenant must notify the landlord on Form N9 at least 28 days before the end of a weekly rental period.
4. If you have any questions about the law related to rent increases and how it applies to this notice, you may contact the Landlord and Tenant Board at 416-645-8080 or toll-free at 1-888-332-3234. Or, you may visit the Board's website at tribunalsontario.ca/lrb for further information.
